THE BOERS SLIP AWAY

Roberts Reports How His Forces Did Not Intercept Them.

CHERMSIDE OCCUPIES DEWET'S DORP

Commander of the British Forces in South Africa Advises the London War Office of His Movements at Front.

London, April 25.—The indecisive action and slow progress of General Hart and Brabant are relatively unimportant when compared with the progress of General French. It is now evident that Lord Roberts wishes not only to defeat the Boers, but to pen them in as at Paardeberg. To this end 40,000 British troops are concentrating in the southeastern portion of the Orange Free State and are operating according to carefully devised plans in which the delay may be as much due to strategy as to necessity. The success of this important movement almost entirely depends on General French. If he can sweep down from the north with the rapidity of execution which he displayed at Kimberley and Paardeberg he will effect the same swift, sudden transformation which followed the cavalry evolutions two months ago. According to last accounts he was pushing on successfully. Every day the Boers remain at Wepener improves General French's chance of success.

To put a girdle round the 25,000 Boers estimated to be in the southeastern part of the Orange Free State, Lord Roberts has evidently taken large chances.

The British critics differ as to the result. Some think it impossible for the Boers to escape from the net, while others reserve their opinion until more definite news of General French's progress is received. There is a general impression that the main advance upon Pretoria will be taken up without any reconcentration at Bloemfontein, as with more than half the British army stretched across the Orange Free State, such a change in directions would indefinitely delay the accomplishment of Lord Roberts' main objective.

A Boer version of the recent British attack at Fourteen Streams says that Boers were killed and four wounded. Little damage, it is added, was done to the camp, though it was vigorously bombarded.

The Ladysmith district is apparently still only marked by sniping and scouting.

A Boer dispatch from Glencoe, Natal, dated April 24, says that four scouts surprised 300 British from Ladysmith, and put the whole body to flight and captured two of them.

British at Roodekop.

London, April 25.—The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Roberts from Bloemfontein: "Pole-Carew's division reached Roodekop without casualties. Its advance was covered by cavalry and horse artillery, which drove back the enemy with heavy loss, their dead being left on the ground. The mounted troops halted for the night at Grofontein, and at 7:30 a. m. were crossing the Modder river at Valsbank, in accordance with my instructions to French to endeavor to place himself astride the enemy's line of retreat. French's arrival near the Modder river evidently alarmed the Boers, who evacuated their strong position near Dewet's Dorp during the night, and it was occupied by Chermiside's division at once.

"The mounted infantry, under Ian Hamilton drove the enemy off the kopjes in the neighborhood of the water works without casualties on our side.

"The Highland brigade marched 24 miles to support General Hamilton, and halted for the night at Klip Krail, four miles short of Sannas Post.

"Brabant and Hart are still a few miles short of Wepener, and the numbers of the enemy appear to have somewhat increased during the last few days. But it is not likely there will be much trouble in the neighborhood of Wepener once Dewet's Dorp is occupied by our troops.

"I inspected the City Imperial volunteer battalion on their arrival at Bloemfontein, and they looked very workmanlike. I also inspected the first company of Imperial yeomanry, which has arrived here.

"The men turn out smart and their horses are in an admirable condition."

Dalgaty Not Relieved.

Maseru, Basutoland, April 25.—On the breaking up of the bivouac General Brabant and Hart discovered that the Boers, who fell back towards Wepener, had advanced during the night several miles nearer to Strauss' farm, which is a favorable position for resistance. Colonel Dalgaty was severely attacked with six guns, probably with a view to preventing him assisting the relief column. It seemed that Dalgaty had practically been relieved, but the attitude assumed by the Boers shows this idea to have been erroneous. General Hart is now a few miles behind General Brabant's division, which is waiting for the former to come up. Thirteen British wounded were removed to Mafeking at midnight, and placed in the English church.

Are the Boers Trapped?

Hershael, Cape Colony, April 25.—It is reported that the British have occupied Wepener after heavy fighting. It is also said that the Boers are unable to escape to the north, and that great developments are expected.

TRIPLE HANGING.

Two White Men and One Negro Executed in Tennessee.

McMinnville, Tenn., April 25.—John Johnson and Bill Brown, both white, and Sonnie Crain, colored, were hanged here. Johnson was convicted of having shot his neighbor, James Hillis, from ambush in December, 1898. Brown was charged with complicity in the murder of his wife. Crain was a double murderer. He was convicted of having killed another negro, and while serving his sentence killed John Brown, a fellow prisoner, in the jail.

Principal Witness Absent.

Lansing, Mich., April 25.—The trial of Colonel Eli R. Sutton, of Detroit, a prominent attorney and Pingree politician, who was indicted with Generals White and Marsh, under charges of implication in the state militia clothing frauds, was begun. Sutton's attorneys moved for a continuance on the ground that their principal witness, Tom L. Johnson, of New York, is in Europe, and his deposition could not be secured before he left. Colonel Sutton desired to show by Johnson's testimony that certain moneys which came into his hands about the time the alleged frauds were perpetrated were paid from another source. Judge Wiest denied the motion. The work of securing a jury began.

Ecumenical Conference.

New York, April 25.—About a dozen meetings of the Ecumenical conference were held in different churches and halls and much enthusiasm was displayed. The principal meeting was held in Carnegie hall, which was crowded to its capacity. Bishop E. R. Hendrix of the Southern Methodist church, recently returned from Africa, presided. The speakers were Bishop Hendrix, Rev. Canon W. J. Edmonds of Exeter cathedral, Rev. Jacob Chamberlain of India, and Rev. W. M. S. Ashmore, formerly of China. The subject was "The Translation of the Bible and Its Distribution Among the Nations of the Earth."

Miners Strike.

Lasalle, Ills., April 25.—It is announced here that the 1,800 coal miners employed by the Spring Valley Coal company have struck. Ten days ago the miners presented a set of demands upon the management of the Spring Valley Coal company, with headquarters in Chicago. The most striking of these demands was that the company should hereafter hold back from every union miners' pay his dues and assessments in the union, and that the company require 11 employees to become members of the union. Several conferences were held without result.

Indiana Republicans.

Indianapolis, April 25.—The Republican state convention convened here. It is attended by one of the largest delegations in the history of Indiana conventions. The real contest for the nomination for governor began with the inpouring of delegates and the canvass for votes has assumed an intensity seldom witnessed in Indiana conventions. It is rumored that a combination has been formed to support John L. Griffiths, and if the effort failed, to throw the strength of the combination to the support of Enoch G. Hogate.

Refused Their Quest.

Detroit, April 25.—The management of the Consolidated Street railways of Detroit formally refused to accede to a request of the employees for an increase in wages of 2 cents per hour. The announcement says "that on account of the attitude of taxing and other authorities toward us it is doubtful if we can continue to pay the 16.2-3 per cent. higher wages than are being paid in other cities." The letter states that only Boston, New York and Chicago are paying wages as high as those in Detroit.

St. Louis, April 25.—A special car attached to the Washington train on the Baltimore and Ohio, which left here for the national capital, contained the delegation that will appear before the special committee of the house of representatives to consider the legislation affecting the Louisiana Purchase centennial bill.

ROBERTS' SUCCESSOR

From the State of Utah Takes His Seat in the House.

THE PNEUMATIC MAIL SERVICE

Is Given a Body Blow by the Lower House of Congress, the Appropriation For Same Being Stricken Out.

Washington, April 25.—At the opening of the session of the house William H. King, who served in the Fifty-fifth congress from the state of Utah, was sworn in as a representative of that state to succeed Brigham H. Roberts, who was denied a seat.

Without preliminary business the house resumed consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill. The item appropriating $725,000 for pneumatic tube service an increase of $500,000 over the appropriation for the current year was the subject of two hours' debate under the arrangement previously made.

Mr. Little (Ark.) represented the pneumatic service, which, he held, was unnecessary and of no material benefit in expediting the mails. The charges for the services in New York, he said, were outrageously exorbitant. The government was paying $37,000 a mile rental for six-inch iron pipe besides cost of operating the machines.

Mr. Moody (Mass.) also opposed the extension of the tube service. If it was entered upon he said it would add in the near future millions to the already swollen expenditures of the postoffice. Taking this bill as a text, he made an urgent plea for retrenchment in public expenditures. Every branch of the public service, he said, was asking for its share of the enormous revenues, which were being collected. Proceeding, Mr. Moody assailed the whole history of the pneumatic tube service. "It is so malodorous from beginning to end," said he, "that it should die the death of a dog."

"Smoke the rascals out," cried Mr. Little, "and we on this side of the house will stay with you."

Mr. Moody said it was not a pleasant thing for him to exploit the scandal, which had been uncovered by the postal commission, of which he was a member, but he considered it his duty to do so. He declared that former Second Assistant Postmaster General Neilson, under whom the first experiments in the pneumatic tube service were made when he retired, accepted from the company $5,000 in cash and $10,000 in stock for his services here during the succeeding year. What that service could be, Mr. Moody said he could not imagine. The facts, he said, had been brought out by the commission. John E. Millholland, of New York, he said, was the president of the tube company. Mr. Moody's next statement startled the house and created a sensation. The tube service, he said, had been constructed by contractors, who took their pay in stock and bonds. The only asset of the company was its contract with the government. "I regret to say," continued Mr. Moody, deliberately, "that one of the principal holders of these stocks and bonds was a member of this house and a member of the committee on appropriations."

"Give his name," shouted Mr. Livingston (Ga.).

"I will not," replied Mr. Moody. Then he added another sensational statement to the effect that a large block of the stock of the concern had been sent to a near relative of a prominent member of the house as a New Year's gift. "But I am proud to say," said Mr. Moody, "that the return mail carried back that dishonoring and dishonorable gift." When the applause that greeted this statement had died out, Mr. Moody appealed to the house not to indorse "this sort of a transaction."

Mr. Moody disclaimed any intention of reflecting upon the present committee, which he highly recommended. He was especially glowing in his praise of Mr. Loud, the chairman of the committee. Mr. Moody said he had been appealed to by commercial bodies of Boston to aid in the extension of this service, but he refused to close his eyes to his duty in this matter. He charged that companies in all the large cities of the country were preparing to raid congress in behalf of further extension of the tube service. The house voted 87 to 50 to strike out the entire appropriation for pneumatic tube service.

To Contract For Coal.

Washington, April 25.—Vice Consul General Hanauer, at Frankfort, has informed the state department that a large firm desires to contract with a coal company in the United States for 500,000 tons of coal during the next 12 months. Coal production in Germany this year is 4,000,000 tons short of the demand.

Yorktown at Shanghai.

Washington, April 25.—The gunboat Yorktown has arrived at Shanghai. She will replace the Bennington and Concord in the waters of northern China in looking after the interests of resident Americans.

LAUGHED AND APPLAUDED

The "Black Patti" Troubadours for Three Hours—An Atlanta Audience Delighted.

The Atlanta Journal of last Saturday thus speaks of the "Black Patti" Troubadours:

The "Black Patti" Troubadours opened to the capacity of the Columbia theatre last night.

The performance was enjoyed as none but southern whites and southern negroes can enjoy a genuine negro entertainment.

It was one of the best altogether colored shows seen in Atlanta in a long time.

Every humorous hit, every pathetic point was caught like lightning. When the audience was not laughing it was applauding, and for three hours the performers held them in their seats.

Each specialty was encoored and some of them several times.

When Black Patti appeared in the second act, she was given an ovation. She sang a ballad with fine effect. In response to a most enthusiastic encore, she sang "Home, Sweet Home" with deep feeling, perfect enunciation and real power. She took the high notes with ease, and her trilling was remarkable. Amid deafening applause she returned and gave another ballad. All efforts to draw her out again failed.

The performance closed with the full strength of the company in operatic selections led by Black Patti.

Washington Opera House, Friday, April 27th. The entire balcony will be reserved for colored people. Seats on sale at Nelson's.

Cold Steel or Death.

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis., by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvelous power of Electric Bitters to cure stomach and liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price 50c., at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store.

TO NAME CANDIDATES

Delegates of Different Parties in Various States Meet.

QUAY HOLDS SWAY IN PENNSYLVANIA

The Selection of a Gubernatorial Nominee in the Hoosier State Engrosses the Attention of the Republicans.

Indianapolis, April 25.—The best of feeling seems to prevail among the delegates to the Republican state convention.

The sole topic of conversation in the hotel corridors was the nomination for governor. It is noticeable that nothing is said regarding the platform, although it will come before the convention at the opening session, and the nominations are on the program later. Interest centers solely upon the gubernatorial nominee.

Frank L. Littleton, former speaker of the house, said: "The main fight centers in the nomination for governor and from present indications it seems to me that Mr. Griffiths will secure the nomination."

"Everybody, irrespective of his preference for the office, agrees on the fact that we must have a good campaigner to head the ticket, and Mr. Griffiths is known to be one of the best campaigners in the country. On account of the large number of candidates it is impossible to say how soon a nomination will be made, but it ought not to take more than four or five ballots at most."

The morning was devoted to district meetings. The convention was called to order in Tomlinson hall and J. Frank Hanly of Lafayette presided.

Pennsylvania Republicans.

Harrisburg, April 25.—The Republican state convention was held in the Harrisburg Opera House to nominate candidates for auditor general, two congressmen-at-large and 32 presidential electors, and also to select eight delegates-at-large to the national convention at Philadelphia. The vote in the United States senate to bar out M. S. Quay, whose friends were in control of the convention completely changed the plans, and half an hour before the hour of meeting nobody was certain who would be the nominees. There has never been any doubt, however, about the selection of State Senator E. B. Hardenburgh for auditor general. There was much opposition among the leaders to the renomination of Congressman-at-large Galusha A. Grow, but it was Colonel Quay's wish that he be renominated. The choice of those opposed to Grow was Dr. Theo. L. Flood of Meadville. After the reading of the platform by Senator Penrose, State Senator Flynn tried to get the endorsement of Senator Quay stricken out. His motion was lost—250 to 59. The platform endorses the present administration and instructs the national delegates to McKinley. The election of United States senators by the people is favored. The convention declares its continued belief in the political and personal integrity of ex-Senator Quay and records its firm conviction of the governor's right to appoint him to a seat in the United States senate.

Alabama Democrats.

Montgomery, Ala., April 25.—Greater interest centers in the Democratic state convention, which began its sessions here, than has been aroused by any similar gathering in this state for many years. The number of candidates and the large proportion of uninstructed delegates makes the fight for the governorship an open contest, and trading is likely to determine the make up of the state ticket. At present the chances favor the nomination of Sam Ford for governor. He has 200 votes pledged to him, and it requires but 253 to nominate. Congressman Stallings comes next in point of strength, and will have an important influence in deciding upon the nominee. The contest for the minor officers will be narrowed by the almost certain renomination of the present attorney general, secretary of state and superintendent of education. For auditor and treasurer, there will be a close contest.

Dewets Dorp Occupied.

London, April 25.—Lord Roberts has telegraphed the following message to the war office from Bloemfontein: "Dewet's Dorp was occupied by Chermiside without opposition at 9:30 a. m."

COTTAGEVILLE.

Tobacco plants are doing well, though very small.
The prospects for fruit are pretty fair in this section.
Several deaths have occurred during the last few days.
J. W. Riggen has been holding a protracted meeting at Ebenezer Church.
Mr. and Mrs. Morton Sparks, of Fearis, were calling on friends here Sunday.
Miss Lucetta King, who has been sick for some time, is reported no better.
Farmers are pretty well up with their work, considering the backward spring.
Miss Kate Barkley, who has been attending school at Valparaiso, Ind., is attending the Tollsboro Normal School.
There has been a great deal of sickness in this section the last few days. Our physician, Dr. Winder, has been kept pretty busy.

THE COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY.

Interesting Paper Read Wednesday by Dr. Browning—Delegates Appointed to the State and the American Medical Association.

There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Mason County Medical Society yesterday, with several honorary members and visitors participating. The regular essay was by Dr. A. G. Browning. Subject, "Temperature and Thermometry," with special references to sub-normal temperature in health, as a matter of idiosyncrasy, with citations, cases and the estimated influence of the abnormal deviation in practice. This essay by Dr. A. G. Browning on thermometry in its practical applications ought to have been heard by every physician in the county. It pointed out important sources of errors and prescribed the manner in which these errors may be corrected or avoided. The essay was one of a series of admirable papers which have already given a reputation to a society which is now but a year old.

While not resolved, 'twas generally expressed that the appointment as essayist carried with it a measure of obligation—that 'twas something more than a routine compliment, and meaning an honest desire to command and utilize the individual experience and learning of every member of the society. The hope was indulged that, in future, the designated essayist would recognize the obligation to respond, after his own style and manner, upon his own chosen subject, but at the society's appointed time.

Dr. H. K. Adamson was appointed essayist for the next meeting. It was gratifying to announce, in evidence of the society's standing and progress, that it is now entitled to representation in The American Medical Association, whose next annual meeting occurs June 5th, at Atlantic City, in a session of four days. Drs. A. N. Ellis and A. G. Browning were appointed delegates. Drs. J. A. Reed and M. H. Davis were appointed delegates to the State Medical Association, whose next meeting will be in Georgetown May 9th-11th. The next meeting of the county society, May 30, will mark its first anniversary, and 'tis proposed to make the occasion especially interesting.

A Night of Terror.

'Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she couldn't live till morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die from Pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of Consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases. Only 50c. and $1. Trial bottles free at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store.

SAD STORY.

The Old Saying, Misfortunes Never Come Singly, Proves True in the Case of a Former Maysville Family.

[Portsmouth Times April 24th.]

A lurid story was in circulation to-day to the effect that Chas. Sharkey, whose wife died Sunday, got on a big drunk Monday, was found sleeping on the hillside at New Boston and that the funeral of his wife was delayed two hours in consequence.

The matter was investigated by The Times and the result was that a very sad story came to light. It seems that Charles Sharkey, his wife and five small children moved to Portsmouth from Maysville, Ky., several months ago. They located on Lawson Heights and Sharkey secured work on a night turn at the Burgess mills. About a month ago Mrs. Sharkey gave birth to a child and never got out of bed, death coming to her relief Sunday morning. Sharkey was too poor to hire a nurse and during all this time he worked nights at the Burgess and then nursed his wife and two of the children, who also got sick. The man did the cooking for his family, washed for them and did all the household work, in fact. He labored along as best he could to save his wife's life, but she passed away from him Sunday.

Mr. Sharkey had not eaten anything for two days and was weak and faint from loss of food and sleep, when Monday morning some friends took him into a saloon and bought him a drink of whiskey to "stimulate" him. He says he knew nothing after that until he awoke on the hillside at New Boston and found a group of men surrounding him. Someone had seen him lying down and spread the report that he had committed suicide. A crowd gathered and Dr. Stewart, of Scotoville, and Dr. Hughes, of New Boston, examined Sharkey and found that he was suffering from intoxicants. He was placed in a carriage and driven home, and although the funeral of his wife was delayed, it is said that it was not on his account.

The poor fellow's woes did not end with his wife's death, however, as he was notified Monday that he must pay up what little rent he was delinquent or move out of the house Wednesday. The man is now trying to secure day work so that he can keep his little family together. If he fails in that he says he is going to get a shanty boat and try to make a living by fishing.

This certainly is a case in which charitable Christian people should take some action. The man and his five little ones are not in far-off India. They live on Lawson Heights, Portsmouth, Ohio, in this year of our Lord, 1900.

TWICED SENTENCED

For Murder, But Out on Peculiar Order From Bradley.

GREENUP, Ky., April 20.—Archibald Horner has been convicted three times of killing Jordan Harris and twice sentenced to the State penitentiary, but enjoys his liberty from a peculiar order from ex-Governor Bradley. The Governor was called upon by a delegation of prominent Greenup County citizens asking a stay of sentence, as the old gentleman was in such an enfeebled condition that it was thought death would immediately result from confinement. He gave the order to "stay sentence until further orders from him," and thus the matter stands to-day. No one seems to know who has the right to order sentence carried out. Governor Bradley never issued any further orders, and the case is puzzling to Judge and jury. In the meantime Archibald Horner is as free as if sentence had never been passed upon him.

In no branch of public business has a greater change come within a decade than in the now almost universal desire to advertise. If one has a want it is advertised. If one has the ability to supply a want he seeks to make it known by advertising. If one has anything to sell, or desires to buy, he advertises; and the result is that both parties are made happy through the medium of the advertisement.—Providence (R. I.) Telegram.

Draperies!

Maybe you're troubled with too many doors in the house. Perhaps one room has several and it's a nuisance to be forever closing them—when open they take up too much floor space. Why not do away with doors and substitute draperies? You can take portieres with you when you move and avoid the door nuisance until you build a house to suit yourself. Maybe it's not a door which needs adornment but a screen that requires filling or a mantel demanding drapery. Let your eyes traverse this list and when they meet your need, stop. Then remember that in draperies, as in all else, you can absolutely rely on the quality at this store. We don't sell cheap stuff—it's not worth the investment of our money or yours. The best is none too good for the people who buy here. As for prices, on the same class of goods you can't find them lower—anywhere.

KENNER-POWER NUPTIALS.

"Stone Terrace" the Scene of a Beautiful Wedding Wednesday Afternoon at 2 O'Clock.

"Stone Terrace," the handsome suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Power, was yesterday the scene of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth, to Mr. Edwin H. Kenner, of Flemingsburg.

The spacious parlors and halls were artistically decorated with palms and lilies, and here numerous relatives and a few intimate friends were gathered to witness the charming event.

At 2 o'clock the bridal party wended their way down the winding stair and entered the front parlor, passing into the circle of awaiting friends, where amid the flowers and to music discoursed sweet and low by Mrs. C. E. Geisel, the happy couple were joined in the sacred bonds by the Rev. J. O. A. Vaught, in a beautiful and impressive ceremony.

The charming bride is one of the country's lovely Christian women, and is universally admired. Her bridal gown was of violet crepon, and she carried a bunch of lilies of the valley.

After the ceremony some time was spent in receiving, congratulations and good wishes, and then delicate refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenner left for points in the East. On their return they will take up their residence at Flemingsburg, where the bridegroom has for several years been engaged in the hardware and furniture business. He is a gentleman of sterling worth, and is certainly to be congratulated on winning so lovely a Christian woman for his companion and helpmate.

I WILL pay you your own price for a match to my hearse horse.

Marriage of Mr. Joseph T. Brown and Miss Nora C. Murphy at St. Patrick's Church.

Mr. Joseph T. Brown and Miss Nora C. Murphy were united in the bonds of marriage at St. Patrick's Church this morning at 7 o'clock by Rev. Father Ennis. They are both of this city and well known and worthy young people. The bride wore a gown of blue-gray taffeta silk, with velvet and applique trimmings, hat and gloves to match. The ushers were Mr. Will Kinsler and Mr. Tim Buckley.

The young couple left on the 8:45 train for Cincinnati and will visit the groom's sister at Bethel, O., before returning home. They were the recipients of many handsome presents.

They will make this city their home, and their many friends extend congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy life.

FAIR NEXT FALL.

Meeting Called For Monday, May 7th, to Decide Whether One Shall Be Held.

An effort is to be made County Court day next, May 7th, to organize a fair company and give in the early fall a regular fair.

To this end a meeting is called of all those interested in such a project,—Maysville merchants, horsemen and county citizens,—at the Council Chamber at 2 o'clock Monday, May 7th, to organize.

The Maysville fair grounds can be leased reasonably and the plan and scope of an entertainment so perfectly in accord with the desires of those interested in speed, competition, agricultural contests and housewifely interests as to insure success, both to those who labor for its welfare and those who patronize it.

Now if you are interested in this project and think enough of your business and are sufficiently alive to the great good to be derived out of exhibits and contests, come to the Council Chamber Monday, May 7th, at 2 o'clock and help organize.

Smoke the "La Tosca" cigar. The best on the market. Always the same.
